SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1866.

HON. HORACE MAYNARD, one of the ablest of the Tennessee Unionists, writes thus to Gov. Brownlow: "I shall endeavor to be in Tennessee shortly, and at Nashville by the time the Legislature convenes. I see the rebels howl over the proposed amendments to the Constitution. That ought to determine the Union men at once. Gov. Pierpont sent me, this morning, an editorial from the Richmond Times of yesterday, the most violent, wicked, malignant and devilish. The great fight will be in the coming election this fall. If the Union men sustain themselves, the ownward course of events is easy and pleasant for the country. If they are overthrown, then the Southern Confederacy revives, and starts out on a new career."

AMONG the resolutions recently adopted by a convention of disloyal editors of the Mississippi valley held at Jackson, was the following:

"Resolved, That we recognize in that portion of the late 'Republican' party now led by Stevens, Sumner and Greely, a direct attempt to overthrow the republican principles established by our fathers for the Government of the United States, and to build upon its ruins a consolidated empire, whose irresponsible and despotic rule will sweep away every land-mark of the constitution."

This is decidedly impudent. Emanating from the very men who made an armed attempt to overthrow not only the "principles established by our fathers," but the very Government itself, it is, to say the least, very cool and impudent.

THE soldier citizens of this District are almost unanimous in their support of General GEARY. This is but natural. If they, by their votes, designed undoing the glorious work accomplished at the peril of their lives, we might justly expect a full support of CLYMER. The principles which nerved the patriot's arm upon the field of battle, still live to direct his vote in the time of peace. Soldiers know that GEARY's triumph would not be pleasantly received by the men who confronted them upon the field as foes; that the success of CLYMER would cause rejoicing where the name and bright deeds of the Union soldier are detested.

IN several cities of the Union we notice that income returns of the citizens have been published. We trust more discretion will be exercised in this city, as such publications have no good results, and only tend to clog the machinery of the Government. Persons who clamor the loudest for the publication are least interested in the welfare of the country. They are envious of their neighbor and would expose his business figures, no matter how much it might injure him in trading circles. While the publication caters to the pride of some, it certainly is an act of injustice to many others.

WE would respectfully inform the editor of the Butler Citizen that we are not prejudiced against Gov. Curtin, but claim our right to preference in the Senatorial contest. Regarding the question of the endorsement and recommendation of that gentleman for the Senate by the Union party of Butler county, we adhere to our original assertion, and have in possession the necessary certificates to prove it. Will this satisfy the Citizen?

JOHNSONISM.—The new Johnson party does not thrive. In all the proceedings of the people of Philadelphia, in their imposing demonstration on the Fourth, there was not one mention of the name of ANDREW JOHNSON. There was no preconcerted design in this; but every public man who spoke to or in behalf of the people, seemed to think that it would be out of place to allude, on such a day, to a man who has been false to the people who elected him.

THE Democratic party of Lawrence county met at New Castle on the 2d inst., and nominated David S. Morris for Assembly, Samuel Shaffer for Associate Judge, A. B. Allen for Prothonotary, Chester W. Ballou for Commissioner, and W. P. Martin for Auditor. Among the resolutions adopted was one endorsing Senator Cowan and the "humane and statesmanlike policy" of President Johnson.

SOME of the President's recent appointments are disappointing him. They do nothing he says to support his policy, and he might as well have retained the old incumbents. As the President aimed to betray his friends in the new appointments, he ought not to complain if the new appointments betray him.

BY telegraph elsewhere it will be observed that the Senate has confirmed the appointment of W. G. M'Candless as Revenue Collector of the Twenty-third district. Major M'Candless is a very worthy gentleman, but we can see no good reason for the decapitation of the present incumbent.

Parliament Proceedings—Financial and Commercial Policy of the Government Sustained—Aid for Portland Sufferers.

OTTOWA, July 13.—At 3.45 this morning a vote was taken on Mr. Givorn's motion of want of confidence in the financial and commercial policy of the Government, and the result was: For the Goverment, 83; against it, 28—a majority for the Ministry of 55. The debate on the motion has lasted three days, some members, such as Brown, Galfe, Rose and Melyer, speaking for hours.

Mr. McDonald will move to-day that there be two sittings of the House on Government days, with the object of expediting the progress of the public business, that the session may be brought to an early close. This is the last session of the present Parliament. It will close in about two weeks.

It is proposed to start a subscription here for the sufferers by the Portland fire. In Montreal some men are subscribing liberally. Mr Frothingham gave $4,000, and some others $500 each. The first is an American.

A new office, Minister of the Navy, has been created. The navy at present has one vessel, the La Canadienne.

The Plasterers' Convention—Report of Committee on the State of Trade—The Apprentice System—Sub-Contracting Condemned—Eight Hour Question.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—The Plasterers' Convention assembled at nine a. m. when the Committee on the State of Trade made a report, recommending that apprentices, in all cases, be legally indentured; condemning all sub-contracting, and recommending to owners as being to their interest to contract direct with the "boss" plasterers; defending the lawful use of strikes, and condemning their abuses. It says the greatest strikers are those who condemn them most pointedly. Referring to the manufacturers, who by high tariffs are striking against the consumers of the country. The Convention are in Committee of the Whole, discussing the eight hour question.

General Sherman in Boston.

BOSTON, July 13.—General Sherman's reception this afternoon was very enthusiastic. He was met at Longwood Station by the Mayor, a committee of the city government, and an escort consisting of two companies of cavalry. The streets throughout the route were lined with citizens, and the reception they gave to the great General was of the most enthusiastic character.

Democracy of Rhode Island and the Philadelphia Convention.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 13.—The Rhode Island Democratic State Central Committee this morning issued a call for a State Convention, to meet in Providence on the 2d of August, for the purpose of electing delegates to represent Rhode Island in the Philadelphia National Union Convention.

Those who want anything in the above line will do well to call at Wm. Fleming's, No. 139 Wood street, for great bargains.

The Sale at Fort Herron.
This (Saturday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock, T. A. M'Clelland, Auctioneer, will sell the remainder of those well located building lots adjacent to Fort Herron. The two previous sales resulted in his disposing of quite a number of the lots, and at prices so favorable to the buyer that we do not hesitate to predict that the sale to-day will exceed the most sanguine expectations of all concerned in the same.

This property is, beyond all question, one of the best, if not the very best, locations in our immediate knowledge. From prices obtained at former sales, we can truthfully say that it is cheap property; and to the man of small means, who requires easy payments, we are safe in saying that no such opportunity has presented itself for investment for many a day.

The executors of the estate, in laying out the plan of lots, varied the size, so that the man of moderate views will be as well able to secure his home lot as one of more plethoric purse.

The Minersville Passenger Railway furnishes means of communication with the city, cars leaving the station (which is on the estate) every ten minutes; and on the day of sale this will convey passengers to and from the grounds free of charge.

Ladies of Delicate Constitution
And uncertain health are strenuously advised to throw aside the nauseous and useless preparations with which they are accustomed to drug themselves, and test the hygeian, body-and-mind-strengthening virtues of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. In all the complaints and disabilities arising from various causes, they will find this cheering, refreshing and invigorating preparation of extraordinary efficacy. Its regulating properties are wonderful, and as a remedy for the languor, nausea, tremors, convulsions, hysteria, &c., which often accompany the development of womanhood, it has no equal among the prescriptions of the faculty or advertised medicines. For the many distressing feelings which usher in and often follow the period of maternity, and also for the painful and dangerous symptoms which sometimes accompany "change of life," HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are earnestly recommended. No other restorative seems to suit so well the constitutions and the organizations of the feebler sex. In all cases of Female Debility, where there is a want of brisk vital action, the BITTERS produce a most important change—relieving local weakness, and re-establishing the general health.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

A New Feature in Dentistry.
No discovery of modern date has given so much satisfaction as the introduction of the nitrous oxide gas, which has become so popular in dentistry. It seems almost impossible that by inhaling this pleasant and harmless vapor, teeth can be extracted without pain. We yesterday witnessed an operation performed by Dr. Spencer, 254 Penn street, twelve teeth being extracted with one dose of Gas; the whole operation consuming about two minutes. The patient being surprised on awakening, to find his teeth out, exclaimed, "perfectly delightful; I was dreaming." Dr. Spencer is an expert operator, as well as in other branches of dentistry, and his moderate charges, gentlemanly deportment and universal success, has won for him the largest patronage of any individual Dentist in the United States.

N. B.—Dr. S. inserts the Artificial Human Eye without the slightest pain.

Lightning.
Dr. Maceroni, a celebrated French electrician says: "I have seen to much of the saving powers of conductors not to wish that every house was protected by one;" and among other instances cites the fact that after numerous conductors were affixed to the summit and most prominent angles of St. Peters, in Rome, by the French, in 1808, an electric discharge was not known to fall on it more than three times, and then no damage ensued; while before that time injury was continually being done to that stupendous edifice. The same author says that a tube is better than a solid rod, because it is to the surface of bodies that electricity adheres, and that a proper and elevated conductor will generally carry off the electricity silently without any apparent discharge. Lockhart and Company of this city, manufacture Munsons Copper Tubular Lightning Rod, which no doubt, is the best conductor before the public. See advertisement.

Beautiful Specimens.
The pedestrian on St. Clair street is irresistably attracted to gaze into the art windows of the well known photographer, B. L. H. Dabbs. At the present time there is upon exhibition a number of photographs finished by the artist Wenzel, which, for beauty of execution, are superior to anything ever turned out in this city. One cabinet photograph of a little son of Rev. James Allison, is worthy of special attention. It is a master-piece of photographic art. Another, the picture of a little daughter of Mr. Burns, is the most faithful likeness of an earthly angel we have ever seen. The crowning photograph, however, is that of a young lady of Alliance, Ohio. It is a life-size or cabinet photograph, delicately colored, and as natural as life. There are many other specimens upon exhibition, and the admirer of the beautiful would do well to call and closely examine the many superior works of photographic art in Mr. Dabb's palatial establishment. He charges but reasonable prices for photographs, and every picture finished at his gallery bears the impress of superiority. His rooms are located at No. 26 St. Clair street.

Tired of Seeing It:
And I am almost tired of presenting myself to you, my friends, but as my object is business, I trust that you will tolerate me once more, for it is the expectation of meeting with new readers in continuing my appearance in the papers. Many of my dear and judicious friends are telling me daily to desist this useless expenditure of money in news items, but they will pardon me for leaving that monotonous profession and non-advertising life, which I have followed for so many years, as my sign can be exhibited to so many more by the adoption of this course. I have thought, and still think, that Laughing Gas is entirely free from danger, and the best known agent for extracting teeth without pain. If everybody could believe as I do of this pleasant and harmless process of being so relieved of aching teeth, they would overwhelm me with besiegment for my services; but fortunately for me the thousands that have come first must serve as testimonials among their friends—skeptics, which act as leaven to leaven the whole loaf. We give full sets of teeth for ten dollars and upwards. I presume that the most of people who can afford it will prefer the latter. C. Sill & M. E. Gillespie, 246 Penn street.

P. S.—That White House, directly opposite Christ M. E. Church.

Get the Best—They Always Give Satisfaction.
Every week, Dr. Quincy A. Scott is called upon to insert Artificial Teeth in cases where other dentists have tried, been paid, and failed, and in every case his work gives entire satisfaction. He is quite an artist in his line of business, and has merely to examine a case to know how to articulate the teeth, so that they will present a handsome and natural appearance, and will masticate the food thoroughly.

His prices are lower than those of any dentist in the city, and he will guarantee his work to be superior. So it would better for any of our readers who are in want of teeth, to call upon the Dr. in the first place, and thereby save their time and money. We would also assure those persons who are suffering with diseased and unsightly teeth, that they can have them extracted without any pain whatever, by calling upon Dr. Scott. He has extracted for over ten thousand persons within the last seven years, and among this large number there is not one case in which his process has proved injurious. On the contrary, he can refer to numbers of his patients who claim to have been benefited in renewed health. He extracts numbers daily by the new "Rhigolene or Vapor" process, and gives pure Laughing Gas to those who desire it, without charge. He makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered, and gives a full set on Vulcanite, with beautiful gums, for eight dollars. Remember his number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand.

Secretary Welles to Senator Doolittle.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The letter of Secretary Welles to Senator Doolittle begins thus: "I cordially approve the movement which has been instituted to sustain the Administration in maintaining unbroken the union of States, and I recognize in the call which you have sent me, the principles and views with which the Administration has been governed."

Tennessee and the Constitutional Amendment.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Post's special says the Tennessee Congress delegation are advised that the Constitutional amendment will be passed by the House of that State.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK, A. M.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAMS.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, July 14, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Guthrie, from the Committee on Finance, reported the joint resolution respecting the payment of interest upon the war debt due to the several States, with an amendment, (it being on the second section,) as follows: Section 2. The said accounting officers shall in like manner report the claim of each State for interest on monies borrowed and actually expended for the use of the United States during the rebellion, and that the same rules shall be observed which were prescribed in [illegible] fund for interest on monies expended [illegible] the use and benefit of the United States during the late war with Great Britain, and Chapter 39 of the acts of the 19th Congress, first session; A. D. 1826.

Mr. Wilson introduced the following, which was objected to by Mr. Johnson, and goes over:

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to furnish to the Senate the record of the court of inquiry upon the murder of twenty-three United States soldiers at Kingston, N. C., in 1864, by the Rebel Generals Hoke and Ricketts, under the charge of having deserted from the Rebel army, together with the finding of the said court of inquiry, and the action, if any, taken thereon.

Mr. Wilson reported the bill respecting three months' extra pay of volunteers when mustered out of service and discharged.

On motion of Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, an amendment was adopted repealing the twenty-fourth section of the act of July 24th, 1863, allowing the payment of bounties to the loyal masters of enlisted slaves.

The committee rose and reported the bill and amendments to the House. The yeas and nays were called on Mr. Washburne's amendment to repeal the twenty-fourth section of the act of July, 1864, allowing the payment of bounties to loyal masters of enlisted slaves. The amendment was agreed to by yeas, 82; nays, 38. All the other amendments were agreed to. The bill was then read a third time and passed.

The House resumed the contested election case of Fuller and Dawson, from the Twenty-first Congressional District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Wilson reported, without amendment, from the committee, the bill to amend the act providing for the payment of horses and other property lost in the United States service.

Mr. Guthrie, from the Finance Committee, reported a bill to amend the acts to indemnify the States for expenses incurred by them in defense of the United States, with an amendment.

Mr. Howard reported from the Military Committee a joint resolution giving to the Union Pacific Railroad the right of way through military reservations, which was passed.

Mr. Pomeroy, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported two bills to revive to certain Southern States the benefit of an act granting public lands to construct railroads, which were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Williams offered a motion to reconsider the vote on the bill to reannex Alexandria to the District of Columbia, which was defeated in the Senate on Tuesday last.

The Niagara ship canal bill was taken up on the expiration of the morning hour, the pending question being on the motion of Mr. Morrill to postpone the bill until December next.

Mr. Harris spoke in favor of the motion to postpone.

Mr. Trumbull spoke against the postponement, and spoke of the great national importance of the proposed work as sufficient to urge the immediate passage of the bill.

Mr. Hendricks hoped the bill would be postponed. He did not believe its passage at the present session could accomplish much. He was in favor of the postponement of this and other pending measures of importance. It was time for adjournment, and there were issues enough before the country. Congress had neglected its most important duty, that of restoring harmony between the two sections by admitting the Southern States to representation in Congress.

Mr. Trumbull wished to known if the Senator from Indiana was in favor of placing the control of the States lately in rebellion in the hands of rebels. Is the Vice President of the late Confederacy to come in here as a Senator? Is his colleague, Herschel V. Johnson, fresh from the rebel Congress, to come here as a Senator to legislate for the loyal people of this country? Let the Senator from Indiana shake off his party shackles and arise to the Union sentiment of the country. Let him say to the people of the South, you rebels, who brought on this war, who occasioned this desolation and woe throughout the land, must stand back and let the loyal men of the country rule the country. Let him unite with us in demanding that loyal men shall control the country, and I will unite with the Senator from Indiana in welcoming their representatives to seats here, and the passage of laws recognizing these States as in friendly relation to the Government. If the Senator wants this harmony restored; if he wants friendly intercourse among the inhabitants of the late rebel States, tell him he cannot have it until there is a Union sentiment in the south that will protect the Union men in the south. He cannot have it when a man, for his personal safety in traveling through the late rebel districts, has to conceal his love of the Union. He cannot have it when the national flag cannot be borne in safety through the streets of Mobile. He cannot have it when loyal men and women are not permitted to go and scatter flowers upon the graves of the heroes who fell to maintain the Union. The loyal element of the country, and the Union men of this nation, have suffered too much and too long to have affiliation and friendship with the traitors who brought ruin upon the country, and still persist in oppressing loyal men.

Mr. Hendricks said he would not prolong a discussion on a question not directly relevant to the bill, but he would reply briefly to the Senator from Illinois. He (Trumbull) asks the question, or rather states the proposition, that the relation between these States cannot be restored while I, and others who think as I do, are in favor of placing the Southern States under the control of rebels, and giving rebels a right to representation in Congress. I think that Congress has no control over the sanction of officers of the different States. As an Indianian I am not willing to give up to the Federal government, and I think as an Illinois man, that the Senator would hardly ask that Illinois should give up to the Federal government, the control of the officers of that State, or that the Federal Government should in any way control their sanction. It may serve the Senator's purpose on the hustings, but it will hardly serve his purpose here, to say that I, or any who are with me in opinion, are now advocating the admission to seats in this body, or in the House of Representatives, of persons directly connected with the rebellion. The Senate knows very well that there now stands upon the statute books of the United States, and upon the rules of the Senate, a provision requiring every person who claims a seat in the Senate to take a most solemn oath.

Mr. Trumbull—Is the Senator from Indiana in favor of that law and that rule?

Mr. Hendricks said his votes would best express his views on that question. He had not asked to repeal the law. Does the Senator from Illinois consent to its repeal?

Mr. Trumbull—Certainly not; and will the Senator from Indiana help me to keep it in force?

Mr. Hendricks replied, that while the law remained, although he might have doubts as to its constitutionality, he would not vote for the admission of any man who could not take the prescribed oath. If he (Hendricks,) knew a man to be unable to take that oath, he would be opposed to his admission. The question was, however, not whether rebels should take seats in Congress. It was not whether any man who had been connected with the rebellion in any way be admitted; it was whether men selected by competent authority in the Southern States, should be admitted. He (Hendricks,) was not in favor of the admission of Alexander H. Stephens or Hershel V. Johnson, while the Test Oath stood. If they could take that oath, he would be in favor of their admission.

Mr. Trumbull replied to Mr. Hendricks, and a discussion sprung up between these two gentlemen, in which the whole question of the late rebel States was treated. The bill was postponed by yeas 24, nays 11.

Mr. Wiley introduced a bill to provide for restoring to the States lately in insurrection their full political rights, which after reciting in a preamble the last constitutional amendment, reads as follows:

Resolved, That whenever any State lately in insurrection shall have satisfied the above recited Constitutional amendment, the Senators and Representatives from said States, if found duly elected and qualified, may, after having taken the required oath of office, be admitted into Congress as such.

It was ordered to be filed.

Mr. Fessenden offered a joint resolution authorizing the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to suspend the collection of internal tariffs due prior to July 5th, 1866, in the first collection district of Maine, from persons owning property or doing business in the burnt district of Portland, until the close of the present session of Congress. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Williams moved that the Senate take up the bill to secure the speedy completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Sherman said this was a bill to guarantee about a hundred millions of stock for this road. He hoped the Senate would not take it up.

The bill was taken up by the following vote: ayes, 20; nays, 19.

HOUSE.

The House bill to incorporate the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home, was read the third time and passed.

Mr. Woodbridge introduced a bill for the relief of the St. Albans Bank, of St. Albans, Vt., which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking and Currency. It authorizes the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to suspend the collection of duties on taxes accrued or accruing from October 18th, 1864, to July 1st, 1866.

On motion of Mr. Stevens, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole (Mr. Raymond in the chair,) and proceeded to the consideration of the bill making appropriations for sundry expenses of the Government for 1867. Considerable discussion sprang up on a motion to strike out the appropriation of $60,000 for publishing the medical and surgical history of the rebellion, and insert $20,000 for preparing the same and have the book printed in the Government printing office. The proposition was rejected, there being only 10 ayes. The bill was amended by inserting other appropriations for Custom, Light and other Government houses.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, moved to strike out the paragraph appropriating $250,000 for a fireproof building for the currency printing bureau. He said that any member who had read the reports of the Special Committee which investigated the affairs of that Department two years ago, must be satisfied that until there was some change made in its superintendency no expenditures should be made that would render it a permanent department of the Government.

After some debate the paragraph was, on motion of Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, amended so as to appropriate $200,000 for the erecting of a fireproof brick building to afford additional room for the Treasury Department.

Mr. Wilson's amendment was rejected.

The committee rose temporarily, and Mr. Morrill, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the bill to protect the revenue and other purposes, which was read twice and ordered to be printed, and made the special order for to-morrow. The bill is a partial revision of the tariff, and imposes the following duties: Cigars, cigarettes and cheroots $2,50 per pound, and fifty cents ad valorem; on cotton three cents per pound; on all compounds or preparations of which distilled spirits is a compound, part or the chief value, a duty not less than that imposed upon distilled spirits. It contains the section of the tariff bill passed the other day allowing goods in bond to be [illegible] through to the British provinces from New York, Boston and [illegible] without the payment of duties. Also, [illegible] tion authorizing the refunding of duties paid in excess. Also, the section providing that dutiable revenue of goods is to be ascertained by adding to the value or cost in the principal markets of the country from which imported, the cost of transportation, shipments, commission, etc. Also, the section permitting, free of duty, machinery for the manufacture of sugar from beets; and also the section providing for a Bureau of Statistics.

The House again went into Committee of the Whole and resumed the consideration of the Miscellaneous Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Payne, Chairman of the Committee on Elections, closed the debate in a speech supporting the right of Mr. Dawson, the sitting member, to his seat. The resolution retaining Mr. Dawson in his seat was adopted without a division.

Mr. Elliott from the Conference Committee on the bill further to prevent smuggling, made a report which was agreed to.

The House adjourned, and then an announcement was made that there would be a Caucus of Union Senators and Representatives, in the Hall to-morrow, Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

Letter from Paris—Count Bismarck the "Evil Genius"—Probable Departure of Napoleon From His Neutral Policy—Italian Funds Improved—Rumored Advance to Italy by the Rothschilds of 100,000,000 Francs—General Beauregard Received in a Marked Manner by Napoleon.

NEW YORK, July 13.—A Paris letter says: The Prussian Government, even at the outset of the war, is undergoing a serious electoral defeat, its candidates for seats in the Lower Chamber being only returned in the proportion of [illegible] to 1,000. This combination of events would, to a less unscrupulous man than Count Bismarck, act as a checkmate, but the evil genius of the King is determined to break the check by bringing France out upon the board.

France, it appears, shows no reluctance to take the move, at least it is so surmised upon the Bourse, where, on Thursday, Italian funds slightly recovered, owing, some speculators said, to the report that orders had been given to all the papers in the Government or Prussian interest to prepare the public for a departure of the Emperor from his alleged neutral policy. Others, on perhaps less foundation, ascribed the tendency of Italian stock to recover, to another report, that the Rothschilds have agreed to advance 100,000,000 francs to the Italian Government on the recently confiscated church properties.

In connection with the Italian news I may add that the Prince Asmodeus is rapidly recovering from the breast wound he received at Custozza.

The Emperor has again shown his southern sympathies in a very marked manner. He received with unusual cordiality General Beauregard, who is now staying at Grand Hotel, and sent a chamberlain to show him over the Corps Legislatif, where there happened to be going on just then a peace demonstration, which was brought about by a speech of Mr. Larrabure, a member of the right, who argued against France joining with any of the belligerent powers, or firing a single gun for the recovery of her ancient boundaries.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Rebel Magruder Editing a Paper in the City of Mexico, and Supports "My Policy"—June Emigration—The President Apprized that the Radicals of Missouri are Determined to Carry the Elections by Force—A Colloquy on the Subject.

NEW YORK, July 13.—J. Bankhead Magruder, of the late rebel army, has continued the publication of the Times newspaper in the City of Mexico, since the death of Henry Watkins Allen, formerly the Confederate Governor of Louisiana. The Times promises to support the administration of President Johnson and favors his reconstruction policy.

Thirty-four thousand emigrants arrived at this port from Europe during the month of June.

The Herald's Washington dispatch contains the following: A prominent citizen of Missouri, and an old friend of Mr. Johnson, called at the White House with Mr. Thomas E. Noell, in relation to the peculiar political condition of the State of Missouri. The object of these gentlemen was to apprise the President of the fact that Governor Fletcher and the Radicals of the State had boldly threatened to carry the coming election by force of arms, and that they were organizing their militia and secret leagues for that purpose. They stated that arms were being shipped to different parts of the State, and that an effort would be made to send companies of radical militia, commanded by appointees of General Fletcher, with negro troops, into the large conservative counties for the purpose of deterring the people from voting, or forcing them to vote the radical ticket in self protection. They asked the President whether he intended that Governor Fletcher, McNiel, and others like them, should have the control of the military department, and whether the people were to be left to the mercy of Fletcher's militia and negro troops.

The President replied that without intending to make any political issue with Governor Fletcher, he would see that the people were protected in the full and free enjoyment of their civil and political rights.

Mr. Noel then said: "But suppose, Mr. President, that the citizens of any county apply to the commander of the District or Department, and he refuses to interfere for their protection."

"Then apply to the Secretary of War," replied the President. "But our people will not apply to him," said Mr. Noel.

Then apply to me, said the President. It is the duty of the executive to protect all citizens of the United States, from violent interference, while in the enjoyment of their rights as citizens.

Only one case of cholera in this city, and one in Brooklyn, are reported to-day.

The Atlantic Mail Steamship Company have decided to increase their capital stock from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000.

The failure of J. P. Jenkins, successor to S. S. Marshall & Co., pickle and preserve house, 326 Washington street, is announced. His liabilities are large.

The total collections in aid of the Portland sufferers amount to $80,000.

The thermometer at 6 P. M., at the office of the Associated Press stood at 97½ deg.

Deputy Postmasters—Robert W. Taliaferro, New Orleans, La.; James L. Camp, Dixon, Ill.; Moses Drake, Jr., Fort Wayne, Ind.; Duncan McKercher, Ripon, Wis.; Henry D. O'Brian, St. Anthony's Falls, Minn.

A special order for the mustering out of those officers of white troops on duty in the Freedmen's Bureau, whose regiments have been mustered out of service several months since, was yesterday issued from the War Department. The order directs that all volunteer officers, not officers of the veteran reserve corps, on duty in the Freedmen's Bureau belonging to regiments of white troops, are, by virtue of this order, mustered out and honorably discharged from the service of the United States, on account of their services being no longer required. The Commissioner of the Bureau is instructed to at once relieve these officers from duty and direct them to repair to their respective homes, thence to report by letter to the Adjutant General of the Army for their discharge papers, the respective reports to be accompanied by a copy of the order from the Freedmen's Bureau relieving the officer from duty.

The Ohio Democracy and National Union Convention.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, July 13.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee of Ohio, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That for the purpose of carrying out the co-operation proposed by the platform adopted at the recent Democratic State Convention of Ohio, the State Democratic Executive Committee be authorized to appoint four Senatorial Delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention of August 14th. Members of the Democratic party, in accordance with the suggestion of Messrs. Randall, Campbell and Blair, on behalf of the National Union Committees, to issue an address to the Democracy of the several Congressional Districts recommending the appointment by their several County Central Committees, or by the district Conventions, of two members of the Democratic party as delegates from such districts, as also suggested by said National Union Committee."

Flour for Portland Sufferers.

OSWEGO, N. Y., July 13.—The millers on the east side of the river in this city will all send barrels of flour to-night to the Portland sufferers.

Progress of the Freedmen's Bureau Commissioners.

GALVESTON, July 12.—Generals Steadman and Fullerton leave to-day for New Orleans. They have visited portions of the interior and express satisfaction with the former and present management of the bureau. Nothing has been heard of General Gregory.

Funeral of Senator Lane.

LAWRENCE, KAN., July 13.—General Lane's funeral was fixed for Sunday next, but in consequence of the rapid decomposition the remains were buried to-day. All business was suspended. The funeral was largely attended. Appropriate service will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday.

Vagrant Freedmen in New Orleans—Gambling Houses Closed.

NEW ORLEANS, July 13.—The people are indignant at the number of freedmen vagrants patronized by the bureau, and charged upon it disorder and incendiarism.

Gambling houses have been ordered to be closed by the Mayor.

Murderer Stein—His Arrival in the City—Account of His Capture.

Happening at the Union Depot yesterday between one and two o'clock, upon the arrival of the Philadelphia Express, we noticed, among other passengers, Charles E. Stein, the murderer of David Roberts, in the custody of Detective Thomas P. Jones, who was accompanied by Ward Nicholson, one of the Mayor's clerks. A carriage was procured, and the trio proceeded to the Mayor's office. This arrival extraordinary did not seem to be generally known at the depot, and hence there was not that excitement or curiosity manifested which would otherwise have been.

At the Mayor's office a crowd soon collected, but the door of the private office being locked, all who desired were not permitted to gaze upon the hand-cuffed homicide. Mayor McCarthy very soon made his appearance, and by his direction Stein was locked up in a cell in the toombs. Following this, "Detective" Jones, to whom alone it was generally understood the credit of the important arrest was due, and which, it was bruited about, he had effected after a "desperate resistance," became the centre of attraction. He was presently surrounded by a bevy of reporters, and notwithstanding Mr. Jones' avowal that he had slept none for several nights, he was importuned for the interesting particulars of his exploit, and finally consented to give them, entering upon a detailed account of his travels and the expedients resorted to by him.

The murder was committed at the saloon of the accused, in the borough of Temperanceville, on the night of the 26th of May, and notwithstanding extraordinary exertions on the part of the police, Stein succeeded in getting away. It was soon ascertained that he had gone eastward, and some wise ones entertained the belief, up to the announcement of his arrest, that he had departed for his native country, Germany, and had already arrived there.

Detective Jones stated that he took the case in hand on the 22d of June, receiving information about that date that Stein was in New York. He went thither, secured the services of a "pigeon," went about "laying his ropes," and meeting with but little success, returned to Pittsburgh to await the turning up of something. On Friday last the "pigeon" telegraphed Jones to come on immediately, that he had been in company with Stein. He left on Saturday last, was in New York on Monday, met his assistant, and went in pursuit of their game. A tangible clue was obtained by their ascertaining that Mrs. Stein (who, by the way, left for New York at the same time Jones did, going, we believe, on the same train,) had shipped baggage to a certain place, over which they kept strict watch, but without success. Jones then assumed the character of an express messenger, or driver, and preparing what purported to be a money package, addressed to Stein, in the care of John Hansel, saloon keeper, at 338 Eighth street, New York, where Stein had been stopping, went there to deliver it. But the detective was again foiled. At Hansel's he met with a man who knew Stein, and who admitted that he could find him in a day or two, but, refusing an offer of $300, said he would not take $1,000 as a consideration to assist in discovering his whereabouts, as he (Stein) was a fellow countryman. Jones returned to the saloon in disguise, feigned intoxication, and purposely dropped on the floor the bogus package which he had previously prepared, addressed to Stein and purporting to contain three hundred dollars. A German picked it up, when Jones, assuming a belligerent attitude demanded its return. This dodge was successful, the man, who had read the address, representing that he knew Stein, that he intended starting for Germany on Saturday, and that two or three days previously he had gone to Hudson City, in New Jersey. The "detective" lost no time in acting upon this information, and going to the place stated, learned that his man was stopping in the vicinity. Going to the place at a late hour, he entered, revolver in hand, and encountered Mrs. Stein, this circumstance convincing him that he was within reach of his prize. Upon asking where Stein was, he was set upon by four or five Germans, who forced him to the floor and held him. Jones managed after a little while to use his revolver, and by firing several shots, designedly without effect, secured his release. He then searched the house, but without avail. Outside he noticed a pathway leading to the woods, and also heard a rustling. Proceeding along the pathway a little distance he was again assailed, even more violently than before, but his revolver proved a potent protector. A small outhouse, in appearance like a chicken coop, attracted his attention, from the fact that it was covered with brushwood freshly cut. Failing in an attempt to overturn the "coop," he pulled off the brush, and thus made visible the object of his pursuit. Stein refused to be arrested, avowed that he would not accompany the officer, but the Colt's patent, and an expressed determination to take him dead or alive, caused him to relent. He was then handcuffed. This was scarcely done ere some persons came from the house and by words and actions indicated their design to rescue the prisoner; but Jones successfully defied them, and securing an express wagon, proceeded to Newark, taking with him, at her earnest request, Stein's wife. On the way Stein adroitly extracted from a side pocket the detective's pistol, and placed the muzzle to his head, with the design to kill himself. Fortunately, Jones had discharged all the barrels in opposing the resistance offered him. Stein then appealed to his captor to charge the pistol that he might put an end to his life. He was told, however, that a different fate was in reserve for him.

Stein's account of his movements upsets the information which our police assumed to have concerning him. He says that after shooting Roberts he swam the Monongahela, borrowed eighteen dollars, went to the Union Depot, bought a ticket for New York, and took the Express train. The conductor, as instructed by telegraph, searched the train, feeling the legs of all the male passengers. Stein says he escaped detection by adroitly throwing his wooden leg over the sound one.

For the arrest, Detective Jones is undoubtedly entitled to great credit, and he fully sustained the reputation he enjoys in the East, as a detective. Stein is a man of more than ordinary shrewdness, and was for a time in the police service in Germany, which fact may account for his success in so long avoiding apprehension.

Mayor McCarthy, as we have intimated, has reason for gratification in the fact that his untiring exertions in this matter have been crowned with success.

Stein, after a formal hearing, will be committed to jail for trial at the next term.

A Strange Serenade—Riotous Proceedings.

A party of men and boys, numbering about one hundred, gathered in front of the residence of Michael Gallagher, on the corner of High and Webster streets, last night, armed with glass horns and tin pans, and began treating the residents of "Bull Run" to a strange sort of music, much louder than harmonious. The cause of the turn out was the marriage of Michael's daughter, whom the musicians had come to serenade. On being told that the bridal party had left, the crowd became riotous, and showed their spleen by breaking the windows with stones. Gallagher repaired to the Mayor's office and procured a posse of police, but on their arrival at the scene of the occurrence the rioters had fled.

The Minstrel Troupe.

Last evening Duprez & Benedick's popular minstrel troupe was greeted with a very large and fashionable audience. Judging from the manner their entertainments have been patronized, we could safely guarantee for them a ten weeks run. The engagement is drawing to a close, and we again urge all who have not yet attended their entertainment to do so to-night. Their programme has been materially altered, and many new songs and burlesques are introduced. It must be remembered that this is the most celebrated troupe in the world, and that before it all others sink into insignificance. Seats may be reserved by making application at the treasurer's office in the Theatre, during the day.

Election of Teachers.

There was an election for teachers to serve in the Fourth ward public school, on Penn street, for the ensuing year, yesterday, which resulted as follows: Principal—Professor Jos. M. Logan. Grammar Department—Miss E. Moore, Miss Mary Ward. Intermediate Department—Miss Rachel R. Crooks, Miss Mary C. Manspeaker. Primary Department—Miss Elizabeth Miller, Mrs. S. N. Miller, Miss Fanny M. Martin. The selections in each case were eminently judicious, and parents may feel confident that their children under such tutors will be properly cared for.

New Switch.—The Citizens Passenger Railway Company are constructing a new switch at the St. Clair street terminus of their road, by which the cars will be drawn up to the curb stone, thereby obviating the necessity of wading through the mud to reach the cars. Besides this convenience, it will afford some eight feet more room for other vehicles to pass.

Paid the Costs.—Florence Acker charged Joseph Beck with assault and battery before Mayor McCarthy yesterday. The matter was adjusted by Beck paying the costs.

Intense Suffering from the Use of Drugs.—A Serious Joke.

We learned the following facts concerning an occurrence that took place in Allegheny city a few days since, which has resulted in great bodily suffering to a well-known citizen, and may possibly cause his death. From prudential motives we withhold the names of the parties at present, but as the matter is now in the hands of an attorney for investigation, they will doubtless be given to the public in a few days. A gentleman afflicted with baldness was informed by a friend(!) that the compounding of certain ingredients, among which was burgamot, would cause the hair to grow in the short space of four weeks after they had been applied to the head. Determined to try the remedy, the gentleman called on another friend, who is the proprietor of a drug store, and gave him a verbal order for the tonic. When it had been prepared the purchaser tendered money in payment, but the druggist flatly refused to receive any compensation, stating that he would remember it on some other occasion.

Thanking him for his generosity the gentleman repaired to his house, where he applied the preparation both to his scalp and chin. On the following morning his head and face became excessively sore and itchy, and before evening the entire scalp and face was one large [illegible] sore of the most disgusting and painful character. A physician was called in, who examined what remained of the preparation, and discovered that the chief ingredient used in its composition was croton oil, which was in a sufficient quantity to cause death.

If the result of the investigation shows a criminal intent to injure on the part of the compounder, he will be immediately arrested, as the injured party is determined to prosecute to the full extent of the law.

Summer Attire.

Now that the warm July days are in, the desire to clothe ourselves in apparel suitable to the condition of the atmosphere, is becoming prevalent. This is more especially the case among those of the gentler sex, who are preparing their wardrobes for a trip to the seaside or some country retreat, as dictated by the decrees of comfort. To the latter we would recommend before starting, a visit to Bates & Bell's dry goods establishment, No. 21 Fifth street, to examine the beautiful and varied stock of silks, satins, delaines, oil chintz, linens, muslins and calicos that are now on exhibition there, and at prices as low as any house in the city. Beside the articles named above this firm has on hand a large supply of ladies' furnishing goods, that in quality and quantity are second to none, comprising ribbons, gloves, trimming, point and honiton laces of the most unique pattern and finest texture. To those who have had dealings with Messrs. Bates & Bell, any word in praise we could utter of them would be regarded as a repetition of what they already know, but to those who have never sustained those relations to these gentlemen, we would say that in all our experience we have never come across more urbane, courteous and clever gentlemen, while the same may be said of their salesmen, at whose hands a customer is always sure to receive courtesy and attention.

More About Stein.

After writing the article about Stein, the homicide, which appears elsewhere in this issue, we had an interview with him. His account of the arrest differs materially from that given by "detective" Jones. He learned, he says, of an express man with a package of money hunting for him, and at once judged that an officer was on his track. He denies that any serious or violent resistance was made to Mr. Jones, and says that at the time he arrived at the house he (Stein) was eating supper with his wife. In regard to his escape, he confirmed what we have already stated, excepting that he did not swim the Monongahela river, but crossed in a skiff, alone. Referring to the killing of Roberts, he does not deny it, and says he would do the same thing over again, under like circumstances. Roberts, he says, endeavored to get behind the bar in his saloon several times, and finally pulled a lighted cigar out of his mouth, and that the other man, at whom he fired a shot, had his wife down on the floor. He remained in the tombs last night, but will likely be committed to jail to-day.

Wanted to Shoot Himself.—A young woman named Catherine Beahle, appeared before Mayor McCarthy yesterday and made oath against Henry Coleman for fornication and bastardy. The parties reside on the old National road, about seventeen miles from the city, where the offense is alleged to have been committed. Officers Busha and Scott were dispatched to arrest Coleman, and found him working in his garden. On being taken into custody he appeared greatly disconcerted and begged the officers to allow him the privilege of going to his room in order that he might blow his brains out. Of course the limbs of the law refused such a sanginary request, and against the earnest expostulations of their prisoner they conveyed him to this city and lodged him in the tombs. He will have a hearing to-day.

A Youthful Offender.—Merian Lindsey was before Justice Lipp, of Birmingham, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a silk dress from the residence of Mrs. Amelia Pottfield, in Lower St. Clair township. It appears that Merian was employed as a domestic in the family of Mrs. Pottfield, and in the latter's absence took the dress and secreted it in a hay stack, where it was subsequently found. Owing to the extreme youth of the accused—being only ten years of age—and her former good character, the charge was withdrawn and the girl discharhed.

Will You Smoke?—If you will, purchase your tobacco and cigars at the favorite place, No. 45 Hand Street. There you will find the best Havanas, the finest flavored Principes, and the most aromatic of smoking tobacco. There also you will find the finest of meerschaum pipes, the prettiest of cigar tubes and the latest styles of tobacco pouches. Mr. John Megraw is the proprietor. He knows his business, and has established a tip-top reputation as a caterer to the nicotian appetite of man. Give him a call.

Increase of Pensions.—Mr. B. Brown, a trustworthy and responsible claim agent, No. 67 Fourth street, advertises an increase of Pensions due our gallant soldiers, or their legal heirs. Mr. Brown has had unsurpassed experience in the business. Being the chief clerk for the Sanitary Commission here, he is thoroughly posted as to the most reliable and quickest way of procuring them. Call and see him. No charge for information.

Recovering.—General William Robinson, of Allegheny city, who has been lying dangerously ill for several days past is now rapidly recovering. His disease is of a billious character which, in view of the fact that the General is now over eighty years of age, is well calculated to test his constitution to the utmost. In common with the gentleman's numerous friends, we are rejoiced at the probability of his recovery.

Explosion of oil.—A few days since a terrible explosion was heard near the borough of Lawrenceville, on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, about two o'clock in the morning. Upon investigation it was discovered that some oil had exploded in McKeon & Brothers' oil refinery, situated in the above locality. The damage was but trifling. There was no one in the building at the time of the occurrence.

For False Pretence.—Officer Seth Wilmot, of the independent police, yesterday arrested George Allingham, of the Ninth ward, on a warrant issued by Alderman Strain. Allingham is accused by by Helena Dowling, of Congress street, Sixth ward, with obtaining from her ninety-nine dollars and seventy cents, under false representations. In default of bail he was committed for a hearing.

A Calf in Trouble.—William McFarland made oath against Thomas Calf for assault and battery, before Alderman Morrow, yesterday. McFarland testified that Calf, who is by no means as docile as his name would indicate, struck him in the face, inflicting a painful wound. The accused was arrested and gave bail for a hearing to-day. The parties both reside in the Seventh ward.

Violating an Ordinance.—John McClarran yesterday appeared before Alderman Morrow and made oath against John Hanlon, for violation of a city ordinance. The offence consisted in Hanlon erecting a wooden building at No. 86 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining the property of McClarran. A warrant was issued.

Mutilated Harness.—Charles Blakely made information against William Alexander, before Alderman Morrow, yesterday, for malicious mischief. It appears that Alexander wantonly mutilated a set of harness, the property of the prosecutor, which were hanging in the stable of the latter, in Peebles township. A warrant was issued.

Hamlet.—Mr. W. H. Leak essayed the role of Hamlet last night at the Opera House, on the occasion of his farewell benefit. As the melancholy Prince, Mr. Leak is excellent, his rendition being fully up to the standard of most of our stars. Mr. Leak remains next season.

The Mansfield Shooting Case.—John Loope, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, by shooting E. B. Sharpneck, last week, in the vicinity of Mansfield, and also accused of larceny, was re-committed by the Mayor yesterday for a hearing on the 20th.

Violent and Abusive.—Alderman Strain, last evening, on complaint of Michael O'Neal, issued a warrant for the arrest of John Hilderbrand, charged with using violent and abusive language, and acting otherwise in a manner tending to a breach of the peace.

Barnes vs. M'Guire.—In the Sixth ward, yesterday, Thomas Barnes and James M'Guire had a difficulty, which resulted in the former prosecuting the latter, before Alderman Strain, for assault and battery. M'Guire was arrested and held for a hearing.

Settled.—Charles Winter was before Alderman Morrow yesterday, charged with assault and battery on oath of his wife, Catharine Winter. On being confronted by her liege lord, Catharine relented, and the matter was settled by Charles paying the costs.

Had a Hearing.—William Gudon and John Murray, charged with stoning John White on Penn street, in the Ninth ward, a few days since, had a hearing before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, which resulted in each being held in $500 to answer at Court.

In Session To-Day.—The District and Common Pleas Courts will be in session to-day for the purpose of transacting the ordinary Saturday's business.

RHIGOLENE!

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

Better Than Laughing Gas.

There is no longer any necessity for you to "go to sleep," with the risk of never awakening, for you can now have your teeth extracted "and know everything that is going on," and yet not experience the slightest pain. 'Tis strange but true, and by calling upon Dr. QUINCY A. SCOTT, and examining his new process, you will be convinced. He gives a full set of Artificial Teeth, with beautiful gums, for $8, such as others charge $10 for; a full set for $10 which others charge $12 for, and a full set for from $12 to $15, which we will guarantee to be better than can be made at any other establishment, at any price. He gives Laughing Gas free of charge, in every case, and makes no charge for extracting when artificial teeth are ordered.

N. B.—Other parties have advertised this new agent before they were prepared to use it; in fact before they were supplied with the necessary apparatus, but the public are assured that Dr. Scott never advertises anything but what he is prepared to do. Remember his number, 278 Penn street, third door above Hand.—Pittsburgh Post. jy7:r

LIGHTNING RODS.

THE PUBLIC HAVE LONG FELT the need of a more efficient lightning rod than the iron one, in any of its various forms or coverings. Many buildings have been struck by lightning, although protected by the iron rod, as witness the accident to Col. Leeds' residence at Sheridan, Pa., a few weeks since; the High School building, at Keokuk; the residence of Mr. Whitmore, at Valparaiso, the barn of Mr. White, in Washington county, etc., etc., and various causes have been assigned for their inefficiency. Lack of continuity, imperfect ground connections, deterioration or oxydation, or poor insulation, have each in turn been urged as the cause. Such imperfection may have been sufficient in many cases to produce disaster, but a more frequent cause is to be found in the low conducting power of the metal used. During ten years' extensive experience with "Munson's Copper Tubular Lightning Rod, with Spiral Flanges," not a single building has been injured upon which it was erected. While silver has an electrical conducting power of say 100, copper reaches 92, and iron has only 12. Munson's rod has been erected this spring and summer on hundreds of buildings in this city and vicinity, and has been highly endorsed by all who have examined it, among whom we may name Rev. I. C. Pershing, President Pittsburgh Female College; Philotus Dean, Prof. Natural Sciences, Pittsburg High School, and Geo. Woods, L.L.D., Prest Western University of Pennsylvania. It has received the first premium at all State Fairs and Institutes wherever exhibited, been commended by the press everywhere, and by over five hundred professors in colleges and other scientific men as the best rod ever invented, and possessing all the requisites for the perfect protection of buildings from disaster by lightning.

The price of this rod is THIRTY CENTS PER FOOT, and three dollars for points. This includes all charges of attaching them to buildings.

Orders may be sent through the mail, or left at our office.

EUROPEAN WAR.

Modest as we are, we cannot help feeling gratified to see our predictions verified in such a striking manner. The reader will recollect that we foretold a Prussian invasion in Bohemia, and the steamer Persia has brought the news of it. It was certainly a bold movement, bolder than any as yet executed by the Prussian army. The Prussians must either have had reliable information that the reported strength of the Austrians had been exaggerated or must be very strong themselves. Good judges made the invading army of the Crown Prince to consist of only three army corps, or about 117,000 men, but we cannot share this opinion. Benedeck stands with 400,000 men in Bohemia, 100,000 of whom watch the Saxon frontier in the west, and the remainder the Prussian frontier in the east of Bohemia. Now, to venture into a hostile country, covered with mountains and defended by a great army, would be more than boldness. It would be madness, if not founded upon very good reasons. Whether the Crown Prince had these reasons, and whether the invasion has been a success or a failure, cannot as yet be stated with certainty. The news brought by the Persia is conflicting, both parties claiming the victory. If we credit the news from Berlin the Prussians were victorious in three engagements fought on the 27th, 28th and 29th at Nachods Trautenau (not Tranlinau, as careless telegraphic reporters have it) and Munchengretz. But the Austrian despatches tell a different story. They admit that they were pressed at first, but that afterwards they drove the Prussians in turn, taking from them prisoners and guns. It is idle to speculate on the consequences, until we get more certain and reliable news. But a defeat in Bohemia would certainly be more disastrous to the Prussians than to the Austrians. If obliged to retreat precipitately, and pursued by strong detachments of cavalry, their flight might become a rout, and thus would the province of Siberia be open to an Austrian invasion. At least if the engagements were not decisive, the Prussian advance has received a check and a week or more may pass away without bringing further developments. By the friends of Austria it is claimed, that BENEDEK has only waited for these movements of the Prussians to hurl his whole force upon their advancing columns, and since he had the advantage of interior lines and a contraction of troops, the news from Berlin may be premature and BENEDEK may have had the better of the fight. As we said before, time will reveal the truth, yet we can scarcely imagine that the Prussian commander could have been guilty of a rashness, the consequences of which might prove false, and therefore receive the Austrian bulletins with the same caution as we do the Prussian.

Leaving this question as it is, and examining the events of the last two weeks, we cannot help seeing that the Prussians have gained immense advantages. Without the loss of a soldier, they have accomplished the conquest of those States lying between her eastern and western division, a gain so important that it cannot be over-estimated. Besides weakening their enemies, she has consolidated her strength, and conquered a position enabling her to throw at least one hundred thousand more men in the field than she could have done otherwise. She has also intimidated the smaller German States, and the whole North is beginning to declare in her favor. The Prussians were everywhere received as friends, especially in Hesse Cassel, whose Elector enjoyed an unenviable reputation as a petty tyrant of the worst description. He now reflects on the mutability of human affairs in a castle of the Prussian city of Hettin. The reception of the Prussians in Hanover was also of a friendly character, and if they continue to keep up their present strict discipline, this favorable feeling is apt to increase. The King of Hanover committed a great blunder in leaving his country. To remain and submit to a force so much superior, would have been no disgrace, and he would have been an ugly stumbling block in the Prussian policy of annexation, but once gone, it is not very likely he will ever return, except in case of a total defeat of the Prussian armies. As we said before, most of the Northern German States have declared in favor of Prussia, and their armies are preparing to do garrison service in the Prussian fortresses, thereby relieving a large number of troops that can be better employed in actual service. The position of Prussia is thus very advantageous, and their Generals should be careful not to risk anything by rash movements. The result of the first great battle in Bohemia will not only bear upon affairs there—it will also influence the campaign near Frankfort. If the Prussians are victorious, the Conferates will become disheartened and try to make their peace with the victors as best they can; if they are defeated, the allies of Austria will take heart and operate with new vigor and energy. In case of a Prussian victory, we expect no campaign at Frankfort whatever; in case of their defeat, we may receive early news of a bloody battle.

In Italy things seem to be unchanged. The attack of the royal troops was undertaken to enable Cialdini to cross the Po; the attack having miscarried, Cialdini did not endeavor to cross. The more details we receive concerning this advance of the Italian army, the more we are struck with its temerity. In the face of an equal enemy they move across a river, enter the famous quadrilateral, and attack the Austrian army with only one corps. They are defeated, and drawing up one corps after another, see them all served in the same manner. They retreat, and are lucky enough to accomplish the crossing of the Mincio, with a victorious army in their rear—a feat not very easily executed. Now the King stands at Brescia with prospects not quite so bright as some weeks ago. What does this all mean? Is it merely bad generalship, or is it something more? It is perhaps the secret working of the man in Paris, who would like nothing better than a plausible pretence to pitch in? We are almost inclined to believe the latter. Either the bold move of Victor Emanuel was successful and the object of the campaign at once accomplished, or—and this was more probable—he was defeated, and a door was opened by which Napoleon might appear upon the stage. We look for his early debut.

Awful to Contemplate.

The Augusta, Georgia, Chronicle contains the following melancholy communication:

"MR. EDITOR—SIR:—Where are we drifting? Are the Southern people ready to place whites and blacks on a social equality? I am induced to ask these questions from scenes witnessed in both the Episcopal churches of this city on Sunday last. The right of confirmation was administered in the morning, at the Church of the Atonement, to several negroes at the same time with the whites, all kneeling together around the same altar, and in the afternoon, at St. Paul's, to one negro, and she of a very questionable character heretofore, kneeling side by side with the whites. If any distinction was made I did not discover it. The next step, and very natural one I think, will be to see them together at the communion table, and in the same pews. If one is allowed the other cannot be prevented. If this equality suits the tastes of the pastors of these churches, let them both run to their native clime, where such things will be more congenial. If the Southern men are not willing to see their wives, their daughters, and themselves, kneeling around the same altars with the negro, let them rebuke, in strong terms, the action of the pastors of the Episcopal churches here, last Sunday. If they are willing, then God help us; we are in a deplorable condition."

A SINGULAR EPISODE.—Of Dr. Craven's career in the army, we find the following singular episode:

"Every spare moment of Craven's time was employed in making collections of rare insects, fishes, herbs and geological specimens or other curiosities for his own or the Smithsonian Museum. Once, when a very scoundrelly deserter, convicted of 'going over to the enemy and other crimes too abominable to be mentioned, was 'shot to death with musketry,' in pursuance of his sentence, Dr. Craven obtained the privilege of skinning him and tanning his hide—the skin itself, tattooed all over while the fellow was a sailor, with pictures too blasphemously and obscenely horrible to contemplate, being a dreadful commentary on the multiform crimes and offenses of which the soul therein dwelling had been greedily guilty. On his breast was our Saviour suspended on the cross, tattooed in various colors, and on each side of it, men and women—and even worse than this—in every conceivable attitude of public shame. It was so, also, I have heard—for I did not see the execution—over all the rest of his body; and certainly such a hide, with the eighteen holes in it through which nine bullets entered and passed out, is no bad sermon on such a life as had been led by this villain."

BORN IN THE BUSH.—On Monday afternoon a man and his wife were walking towards this city from a southerly direction, intending to take the cars for Providence. When near the crossing of the Providence & Worcester railroad, on Southbridge street, the woman became aware that an interesting event was about to transpire. She took refuge in a clump of alders on the roadside, and sent her husband to the city for assistance. He reported himself at the police office, and Captain Austin procured a physician and hastened to the scene, but arrived to late to be of material service, for they found the woman "as well as could be expected," and a bouncing baby washed and dressed by the kind hands of the people living near. A carriage was procured, and the interesting trio were conveyed to a comfortable domicil, where they will remain till they are prepared to resume their journey. At last accounts the little bushwhacker was doing well.—Worcester Spy.

IMPORTANT INSURANCE DECISION.—In the case of the Kentucky Marine and Fire Insurance Company vs. the Security Fire Insurance Company, the defendants demurred to the petition, on the ground that it set forth an oral contract of insurance, and that the plaintiffs under their charter had no power to make such kind of contracts. Chancellor Pirtle decided that oral contracts of insurance were legal and binding, and that there was nothing in the charter of the plaintiffs prohibiting them from making them, and that such a contract gave the plaintiffs the right to protect themselves from loss by reinsuring with the defendants, and therefore overruled the demurrer to the petition, to which the defendants excepted, and then filed their answer.

—A letter from Italy to an English paper says that breast-plates are to be revived as in the glorious times of the Knights of the Round Table and the Plantagenets. E. Muratori, the director of the Genoa Penitentiary, has succeeded in devising a breast-plate for soldiers, which scarcely weighs three English pounds. After repeated experiments, practiced on it with heavy cavalry pistols at five paces, and lances, bayonets and swords, it has been discovered to be utterly impenitrable both by bullets and thrusts. The most striking peculiarity of this breast-plate, which can in no way impede the movements of a soldier, is that not the slightest atom of metallic matter enters into its composition. The Minister of War, and several superior officers being present during the experiments, were highly satisfied with its practical usefulness.

—The Milwaukee Sentinel, of Monday, says an old lady arrived in that city in the last company of emigrants from Norway, who is now nearly a hundred and five years of age. She had in the company, four children, all married, twenty grand children, fifteen of whom are married, forty four great-grand children, six of whom are married, and ten great great-grand children, making in all seventy-eight descendants—all of them in the party which passed through this city the present week. If we add the wives and husbands of these direct descendants of the old lady, we will have a family of one hundred and three members, the aged mother of which still lives, and is in very good health, although becoming quite infirm. The name of this wonderful woman, "the mother of a mighty race," is Katrina Jansen.

—The following is an extract from a letter from one of the leading war Democrats of Wisconsin: "We are going to have a fine time in Wisconsin this fall, if Doolittle and Randall come, as it is understood they will, to stump the State. They have no strength here, and will be coldly received when they come, and will absolutely fail in their mission. The feeling in Wisconsin against both of them is intense, especially against Doolittle. There are localities in the State where he would be likely to meet with personal violence, and in Racine there are many leading men, who have been his warm friends, who say they will not shake hands with him. He and Randall evidently think they can come here and walk over the course, but they will find it rougher than the road to Jordan."

—The Cleveland Herald of the 6th inst., gives a thrilling story of a brave mother's devotion and peril. The dwelling house of a Mr. Suttle, of Huron county, was burned on the 3d, with its contents. The parents awoke to find their premises wrapped in flames. Mr. Suttle having breathed the hot air was unable to do anything. Upon seeing this, Mrs. Suttle started for the children, and succeeded in rescuing two. The other child, a boy some two years of age, was still in the house. Again Mrs. Suttle, at the risk of her life, started for him. While the flames were rolling in the upper part of the rooms, she crept on her hands and knees under them and rescued the little fellow. Thus three lives were saved in the dead of night, by the exertions of a woman.

CAUTION.—A Tory paper invokes the people of Philadelphia to "open their houses" in welcome of "Southern delegates" to the Randall-Doolittle power. If they do, we advise them to "lock up their spoons."

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated Coe's Cough Balsam. Mr. Coe has never prepared a medicinal article for public and general use but what has stood the strongest tests, and has always borne the palm of victory over every disease it has been certified to cure. If you are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, sick headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle! We will never urge you again if we fail in this case. Our own knowledge of its merits the united testimony of all who have ever used it, the encomiums of hundreds of our own neighbors, who can vouch to yourself, and the beneficial results, as certain as sunshine, all urgently, persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—to you do not say that the operation of the medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful we will renounce our profession as caterers to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be entitled to your confidence.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING been appointed Receiver for the firm of PORTER, FRIEND & CO., by the District Court of Allegheny County, Pa., will sell, at public sale, on the premises, on the 1st day of AUGUST, 1866, without reserve, and to the highest bidder, the following described property, being the well-known

WAMPUM FURNACE,

Situate at Wampum Station, on the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad, 41 miles northwest of Pittsburgh, with 800 acres of land, more or less, abounding with Iron Ore, Coal, Lime Stone, Fire Clay, &c., and with never failing springs of water.

WAMPUM FURNACE is a substantial stone stack, 45 feet high by 12 feet at base, and 12 feet bosh, and has made from 12 to 25 tons of metal per day, which finds a ready market. There is a hot blast of the most improved kind, &c. ... [illegible] ... Also, a store house, 12 coke ovens, cast houses, and a number of tenant houses, boarding house, store house and warehouse, engine house, &c. ... Also, Coal Railroad, and sufficient cars to convey materials, &c. The Company also have favorable leases for the principal mineral lands in the vicinity.

The property fronts on Beaver river, and Beaver and Erie Canal, is easy of access and offers to capitalists a rare chance for investment. For further particulars address

Eligibility of Mr. Cluley for Sheriff.

Prior and subsequent to the nomination by the Union Republican Convention of Mr. S. B. Cluley for Sheriff of Allegheny County, the question was mooted as to his eligibility, the State Constitution providing that no person shall fill the office of Sheriff for two successive terms, either by "election or appointment," within a period of six years. It was urged with some success against him in the Convention, the argument being used that in case of his election—a foregone conclusion after his nomination—and he should prove to be ineligible, the calamity of a Democratic Sheriff might be flicted upon us. Mr. Cluley had no doubt in the matter, having fully informed himself, else he would scarcely have yielded to the solicitation of his friends to allow his name to be used in the contest, and therefore paid no heed to the speculations put forth by his opposers, other than to assure his friends that all was right. Certain parties, persistent in their opinions, honest, we doubt not, and uninfluenced by acrimony over the defeat of their candidates for the position of Sheriff, persist in agitating the question of eligibility, and with a laudable desire to set all doubts at rest, have procured, we understand, the opinion of one of our ablest lawyers upon the point in dispute, which opinion, we are assured, settles it clearly and conclusively. There has been so much talk concerning Mr. Cluley's "eligibility," that we see no good reason for the non-publication of the opinion referred to, since it has been prepared, and the parties who sought it are aware of its nature. The constitutional provision applies to Mr. Cluley, so it is contended, by reason of his having, by appointment, filled the office of Sheriff for the last three months of Harry Woods' term. Granted that he did so, were Mr. Woods now alive, and a candidate in the place of Mr. Cluley, would he not be eligible? Certainly he would, three years having elapsed to enable him to settle up his books, the manifest object of the constitutional provision. To say that Mr. Cluley is not eligible is simply absurd; but let us have the opinion, that our readers may have a full and intelligent understanding on the subject.

Who is She?—A Singular Case.

Before Alderman Dougherty, yesterday afternoon, says the Philadelphia News, Rev. William S. Siegfried appeared under the following circumstances: A woman of comely appearance, but evidently without education, was the prosecutrix. She deposed that she was a widow, living in Pittsburgh until about ten months ago. After the death of her husband she accepted an offer to take care of the house and family of a man who was stewart of a ship, and was absent most of the time. Mr. Siegfried, she deposed, met her in the street in Pittsburgh one evening, accosted her, and invited her to accompany him to see "Blind Tom." She accepted the invitation. He saw her next day and induced her to accompany him to Wheeling, Virginia. They remained there some days, when he persuaded her to come to Philadelphia, promising to take care of her, and see that she was provided for.

On the way to the city she deposed he ascertained that she had upon her person a muslin belt containing two thousand dollars. This money he took, telling her he would take better care of it than she could. Upon arriving in Philadelphia she deposed she felt anxious about it, and wished it to be restored, but was finally prevailed upon to let him retain it. He took her then to a boarding-house in Race street, where she remained some time, afterwards he removed her to other places. On Saturday night she deposed he took her to the Continental, where he remained with her until Monday. He then told her that he was a married man, and a minister of the gospel. Next he took her to the Merchants's Hotel, and subsequently to the Sorrel Horse. At the latter place she swears she boarded for five weeks, he visiting her under the pretext that he was her cousin, and was named Mr. Jones. Lastly, he furnished a room for her, but whether it was her money or his own she does not know. The prosecution is brought for the restoration of two thousand dollars, of which she claims to have been defrauded.

There was a large gathering of people around the Alderman's office while the hearing was in progress. The female was represented by William P. Hood, Esq., the defendant by John O'Byrne and Newton Brown. Mr. Siegfried said no more in relation to the matter. There were no witnesses on either side but the prosecutrix, and the reader will accept the matter for just what it is worth. The Alderman held Mr. Siegfried to answer in the sum of three thousand dollars, which was entered by Mr. Frederick Sear.

The prosecutrix gave her personal history in the course of her affidavit, saying that she inherited three thousand dollars from her mother three years ago, and had spent of it sixteen hundred dollars. The belt in which she carried it was of muslin, made by herself. She claims to be now penniless, and deprived, by lost character, of the means of obtaining honest employment.

The New Arrangement at the Mayor's Office—How we Enjoyed It.

Those who have not visited the Mayor's office lately may not be aware of the fact that the rear room, where the Chief Magistrates in former years discharged their duties, has been fitted up in sumptuous style. The walls no longer look dingy, the ceiling is milk white, the floor is covered with one hundred yards of Brussels carpet, the furniture is first class, sofas, rocking and cushioned chairs, marble top tables, elegant chandeliers, and a wash stand convenience. The place, in a word, looks what it is designed for, a private or reception room, quite a necessary adjunct to the dignity and comfort which should surround the people's chosen municipal head. Whilst luxuriating therein yesterday our nasal was greeted with a smell—oh, what a smell! If we were to call it delightful, (except, perhaps, to those who follow a certain nocturnal employment,) we would falsify, and noxious is too tame a word. In appreciating the odor from the rear premises, made up, we judge, from a cess-pool, the tombs, and a livery stable, the grandeur of the room was dispelled and hastening to the front we inhaled a purer atmosphere with decided satisfaction. We accord due praise for the good taste and judgment evinced in the interior arrangements, but we couldn't stand the effluvia, and wish to be excused from again luxuriating in that private room.

Odd Fellows' Procession at Greensburg.

Thursday the Odd Fellows had a grand procession at Greensburg. The day was fine and a general attendance of the different lodges throughout the county, together with a large delegation from Pittsburgh, headed by Weis' Great Western Band. About one o'clock the procession formed and marched through the streets, and over to Ludwig borough. Returning, an adjournment was had to the Court House to receive instructions in the secret work. In the evening the Great Western Band discoursed some fine music in front of the Kettering House, from thence they went to the Court House balcony, and for two hours gave the Greensburghers the greatest musical treat they have received for a long time.

It was announced that Mr. J. A. Simpson, of Philadelphia, would lecture in the Court House in the evening, but he failed to get there, so a dance, in lieu of the lecture, was improvised; but owing to a want of courtesy on the part of the young men of the place, the strangers retired in disgust at an early hour. It is but due to state that the party was not gotten up under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, but many of them participated.

A Judicious Work.

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company have a large force of men employed in removing a portion of the cliff above Everson & Preston's Pennsylvania Forge, which projects some ten feet over their track, and is in imminent danger of falling at any moment. Since the construction of the road the track in this vicinity has been twice buried beneath immense bodies of rock and slate, resulting in serious loss and inconvenience to the company, who, by the judicious step now being taken, show a disposition to secure their patrons from accident and obviate the possibility of such calamities occurring in the future.

Threatened With Violence.—Michael Dunn sued Patrick Kinslow yesterday before Alderman Butler for surety of the peace. It appears that Patrick is in the habit of imbibing rather freely, and while intoxicated, he began abusing a son of the defendant's, calling him and his father all sorts of hard names, whereupon the boy lifted a stone and struck Patrick in the head with it, for which he was arrested and held to bail. Patrick subsequently met the father of the boy, whom he began to threaten with violence. The voluble Patrick was arrested and made to give bail for his appearance at Court.

That Bell.—The Sister Superior, in charge of the Mercy Hospital, in behalf of herself and the institution, takes great pleasure in rendering thanks to Captain Mulhall, assisted by Robert McGraw, Esq., for exercising their influence in procuring a splendid bell, with hangings complete, from the foundry of A. Fulton & Son, of this city. She truly and sincerely hopes that Mr. Fulton, the donor, together with the above named gentlemen may live long to enjoy the ringing of that bell.

Large Returns.—Mr. John S. Edgar, the efficient Weighmaster at the Diamond Scales, Allegheny, in his report for the month of June, submitted to Councils on Thursday evening, returned the unusual large sum of $252.52, as fees for weighing done in that period. During the same month there were 880 loads of hay sold in the Diamond Square.

Being Repaired.—Yesterday workmen were engaged in repairing the Birmingham bridge. The structure was formerly a brown and mauve color, but will henceforth be snowy white. We like the latter color much better than the other, but situated as it is, with rolling-mills and factories on either side, how long will it remain white?

Outrage.—As two young ladies were returning from a pic-nic at Larimer's Furnace, Westmoreland county, accompanied by two young men, a parcel of rowdies suddenly appeared, and, driving off the escorts, attempted to ravish the girls. Fortunately assistance arrived before they succeeded in accomplishing their purpose.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Appointments by the President—General Sickles and the Freedmen's Bureau—The Bureau a Distinct Organization—Adjournment of Congress—Condition of the Freedmen in North Carolina—&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington:

Gen. Sickles, commanding the Department of the Carolinas, having insisted that the District Commander should report directly to him, on freedmen's bureau as well as military affairs, Gen. Scott demurred at this supervision, and appealed. His appeal has been sustained by Gens. Grant and Howard, which establishes the fact that the Bureau is still a distinct organization. The following is Gen. Grant's endorsement:

The Freedmen's Bureau being by law under the immediate direction of the War Department, and its officers and agents being subject only to the orders of the Commissioner, and in matters pertaining to the Bureau they cannot be required to report on such matters to military commanders, unless they are named in orders as agents of the Bureau. The within instructions of General Howard are therefore approved.

Indications still point to an adjournment of Congress about the 1st of August.

It is very doubtful about General Rosseau being expelled. It looks as if the necessary two-thirds vote cannot be obtained.

The heads of the various bureaus in the Treasury Departments have to-day been in conference with the Congressional Committee, to whom was referred the petition for the increase of salary. The result is the drafting of a bill, which will be presented to-morrow, making an average increase of twenty-five per cent.

Under date of Galveston, Texas, June 18th, Inspector General Gregory reports that owing to the heavy rains of April and May, and the inundation of bottom lands, a deduction must be made of at least twenty per cent. of the estimated yield of cotton, but in the western portion of the State, where the grazing interests have suffered the past eight years from drouth, the stock will be materially improved. The corn crop is large, and nearly ripened in prime order. The wheat crop is harvested and is abundant, and of the very best quality. There is enough on hand to feed the entire population for two years.

The Freedmen's Bureau Commissioner for North Carolina reports that of the 300,000 blacks in the State, 3,294 are receiving rations. A decrease of 4,787 rations is reported since the month of May, valued at eight thousand two hundred and thirty-four dollars and ninety-two cents. One hundred and nineteen freedmen's schools are now in operation, with one hundred and thirty-five teachers. The attendance averages 9,084 pupils. One thousand one hundred and forty-six cases were treated in the hospital in June, eighty-eight being small-pox.

As the Legislature and Convention have placed both white and black alike before the jury, the Commissioner deems it advisable to turn over to the civil authorities in all cases, except those of claims by freedmen for wages for labors performed. Destitution and suffering among both whites and blacks in various portions of the State are being gradually relieved.

The Tribune publishes what it calls an authorized report of the caucus, in which it repeats what Mr. Raymond said when he supported the Philadelphia Convention. He thought it was to be a Union Convention. He did not vote on the resolution condemning this convention, which was adopted. Mr. Hale, of New York, voted in the negative.

Secretary Welles has written a letter to Senator Doolittle, approving the call for the Philadelphia Convention.

The statements that have been made in several Metropolitan journals of lengthy and stormy Cabinet meetings being held, in which the new Freedmen's Bureau bill and the call for a Convention in Philadelphia next August were the topics discussed, are all untrue. We have it from persons high in authority that so far not a word has been said in regard to the above mentioned subjects in the meetings of the Cabinet of late.

If the President has written out a veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill, of which there seems to be no doubt, he has never yet submitted it to his Cabinet.

It is understood that the President has accepted the resignation of Postmaster General Dennison. Governor Randall will act as Postmaster General until an appointment is made.

Rumors of other changes in the Cabinet are current, and for which it is generally believed there is good foundation.

The Senate is favorable to an adjournment next week. If the House can be induced to concur, the session will not be protracted beyond the 25th inst.

Secretaries Harlan and Stanton, and Attorney General Speed, had a private interview with the President, and but a few visitors were admitted during the day. Reverdy Johnson had an audience during the evening.

The Senate has ordered the printing of fifty thousand (50,000) copies of the majority report of the Reconstruction Committee.

The War in South America—Further Particulars of the Late Battle.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondence, of June 7th, gives the following account of the great battle between the Paraguayans and the allies, on the 24th of May last, the announcement of which we have already had. General Miles had ordered the assault of the enemy's entrenched camp, to take place on the 24th. Before, however, any movement was made on that day, at half-past eleven in the morning the enemy, with his whole power attacked the lines of the allies, in three columns, consisting of twenty thousand men, commanded by Barreas, Resquin and another General, probably Dias.

The Paraguayans fell upon the centre and flank of the allies with extraordinary bravery, bringing eight battalions of infantry and eight of cavalry upon the centre, the same number on the left, and about one-half that number on the right flank.

The battle along the whole line became general at once, and although the allied artillery poured a murderous fire upon the Paraguayans, they did not falter, but pressed on to break the line of the allies, until they came to a hand encounter, cavalry rushing up to the mouths of the cannon.

After four hours of hard fighting, the Paraguayans were forced to withdraw, beaten and routed, to their fortified camps.

The estimated losses of the Paraguayans are set down at four thousand killed, and from two to three thousand wounded. The allies lost a great many superior officers. Generals Osario and Pannero were wounded.

Fire at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 13.—Cooper's blacksmith shop, Gier's turning shop, Lape's planing mill and Kolker's stair building establishment, all on Laurel street, were destroyed by fire last night. It was the work of an incendiary. The loss is twenty thousand dollars, with very little insurance.

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO.
Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting Gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $2.50; Children's Slippers at 50c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 80c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, July 13, 1866.

Gold has undergone but little change since yesterday, being quoted in New York at 152¾. Government bonds are firm and in fair demand on speculation as well as for investment. 1881's sold in New York to-day at 109⅞; 5-20's, 108; 10-40's, 99⅞; 7-30's, 103⅞; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 84½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 98¼.

Our local money market is quiet and unchanged. Borrowers in good standing have but little difficulty in getting all the accommodations they want, while those about whom there is any doubt, find it up hill work. In local stocks there is next to nothing doing. Occasionally we hear of a small sale of bank stock, but the market generally is dull and neglected, and [illegible] at [illegible] our people [illegible] in government bonds.

—It is to be hoped that Congress, as soon as the tariff bill is disposed of, will take into consideration the funding project that has so long lain dormant in that body. There is yet time, even before the contemplated recess, to fix definitely a measure that could now probably better than at any other time meet with the success that it ought to have. For many weeks past the money market has been characterized by extraordinary ease, capitalists large and small, finding very great difficulty in placing their surplus funds at more than 4 @5 per cent. The stock market gives signs of renewed speculative activity, founded upon the abundance of money. Capital will not remain idle, and will undertake any risks, however wild, rather than stagnate. If, therefore it be an object with our legislators to prevent undue and ruinous speculation in not merely the government and other securities in the stock board, but in the necessaries of life, the funding measure will be taken up immediately. The people will heartily respond to the enactment of a five per cent consolidated debt scheme, though interested parties in Wall street and the enemies of the National Government may continue to resist it. The matter has long since been discussed by the press of the country, and it has met with almost universal approval. So long as the present high rates of Government interest prevail the capital of the country must necessarily be tied down to make investments. Should the five per cent project succeed, this capital would be released and find its way into new channels of internal improvement, enterprise and trade.—Phila. Press.

—The importation of dry goods for the fiscal year just closed are deserving of more than a passing notice. The movement at New York for the year shows that the value of dry goods entered was..........$137,055,834

Of which marketed there was......129,704,676
Re-exported and accumulated on bond..........7,351,158

The goods taken for consumption—that is, marketed—were thus distributed:

In woolens..	$50,387,113	Cottons.......	$23,818,873
Silks........	27,467,846	Miscellaneous	7,830,810
Flaxen.......	20,200,634
Total........			$129,704,676

The total receipts of dry goods have reached the enormous figure of $137,000,000, which is $30,000,000 in excess of the heaviest year in the history of the past, the receipts for 1860, the next largest year, having been $107,000,000. The average importations for the five years preceding that just closed was $63,000,000, and for the ten years ending with 1864-5, $77,000,000. The imports for the last year are thus 87½ per cent in excess of the average of the ten preceding years. During the last three months the receipts were only about half the amount of those for the quarter next preceding; but for the last half year the amount is fully equal to that of the six months ending with December 31, 1865. It is deserving of note that of this immense importation not more than the usual proportion of goods has been entered for warehousing—a fact which implies that there has been not only a large importation, but also a large demand. Twelve months ago, the South began to send to market immense amounts of cotton at very high prices. Its people required, in return, every sort of fabric in large amounts, to replenish their utterly depleted wardrobes. When the spring came, they equally required goods adapted for the Southern summer. When it is considered that the South has realized probably over $300,000,000 for its cotton crop, it does not appear at all inconceivable that it may have spent well nigh $100,000,000 of the amount in replenishing its stock of dry goods, and should this have been very largely in excess of the wants of the country. It must not be supposed that all the extravagance that swells the volume of imported dry goods is confined to this class of merchandise. The imports of general merchandise, including sugar, tea, coffee, liquors, metals, spices, drugs, and everything, in short, not appropriately classed as dry goods, have also been very large, the total for the year being about $[illegible] at New York alone. All the figures above given are foreign gold values, representing the cost abroad, without adding the freight or duty.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The demand for money was more active to-day; the market was a little firmer. Call loans range from 5@6 ₩ cent. on Governments and Miscellaneous Collaterals. The Discount market was quiet and firmer. Prime names are done at 6@7 ₩ cent. The Gold market closed at 152@154, each. Gold was loaned flat early in the day, but afterwards from [illegible] was paid for carrying it. The engagements of specie for to-morrow's packets aggregate $1,700,000 thus far. The market for Sterling Exchange is firm and the bankers generally refuse to draw except against gold. There are more orders for Breadstuffs, but commercial bills are not in favor owing to the nature of some shipping houses.

The depression in the Petroleum market continues, and the price to-day fell to 10 cents in bulk, equal to 20 cents in barrels, which is lower than it has been before in five years. The export demand for continental Europe is light, owing to the decline there, and the business for home consumption is very moderate.

Government securities this afternoon were dull and lower on the five-twenties of '62, but higher on the issues of '64 and '65. The other securities were steady. The following were the closing prices: Coupons of 1861, 109⅞@109⅞; 5-20 Coupons of 1865, 105¾@105⅞; 10-40 Coupons, 98⅞@99; July 7-30's, 103⅞@104.

Mining Stocks—Consolidated Gregory Gold, 19.00; Grinnell Gold, 1.00; Keystone Silver, 17; New York Gold, 1.25.

Petroleum Stocks—Cherry Run, 35; Bennehoff Run Oil, 4.25; Bennehoff Run Petroleum, 9.00; United States, 8.25; Pithole Creek, 2.50.

The Post's money article says: Gold has risen to 153¾, and there is a fair business doing. For cash gold no interest is paid, and in some cases 3@4 per cent. is paid by holders to have it carried. The Loan market is easy at 5 per cent., with rather less demand for loans. There is a small amount of business doing at 4, and a few transactions are reported at 6. The Stock market is easy, without much activity. In Governments less business is doing, and quotations are a shade lower. Railroad shares are quiet, without much change in the quotations. After Board, Erie closed at 97¼; Reading at 107¾; Michigan Southern, 81⅝; Pittsburgh, 84¾; Northwestern, 34¼; do. preferred, 63⅝; Toledo, 109¾; Rock Island, 98⅞; Fort Wayne, 98¼; Ohio and Mississippi Central, 26⅝.

At the four o'clock open board the following were the principal sales: Erie, 74½; Reading, 108; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, 81⅞; Illinois Central, 122¼; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 84¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 98⅞; Chicago and North Western, 34¾; Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago, 98¼. Gold closed at 153¾.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, July 12.—The following are the receipts and shipments of beef cattle for the current week, according to the returns of the Board of Trade, and for the corresponding period of last week:

	Receipts.	Shipments.
Monday..........	703	1,279
Tuesday.........	24	103
Wednesday.......	2532	....
Thursday........	2556	1,124
Total this week........	5815	2506
Same time last week.....	787	1187

The fresh receipts of beef cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 87 cars. Entered sales 1640 head, at prices ranging from $5@5,75 for common cows; $6@6,87½ for fair to good stock and butchers steers, and from $7,12½@7,25 for fair to good shipping steers. The market is moderately active under a good demand for common to medium grades at a reduction of 10@15c per 100 lbs on the closing prices of yesterday. There are several buyers from Albany, Buffalo and other places who have taken a fair number, but there are still from 2000 to 2500 head left in the yards unsold, and the market colses weak.

Extraordinary Decline in Wheat.

Within the past twenty-four hours the wheat market in this city has experienced a most extraordinary decline of 22@27c per bushel! On Tuesday No. 1 regular Spring Wheat was sold at $1,88@1,90, and yesterday it fell as low as $1,60—closing dull and nominal at $1,65.

This decline in prices is the result wholly of excessive speculation. A prominent operator some time since purchased the entire stocks of wheat, and two or three hundred thousand bushels besides for future delivery. In order completely to "corner" the sellers, he adopted the somewhat novel expedient of selling cargoes "free on board" to shippers at 10@15c below the market prices, for lots in store. In this way the stock was reduced quite materially, and the sellers were forced to settle at the buyer's own price. This being accomplished, he threw the balance of his wheat upon the market, and broke it down.—Chicago Tribune, 12th.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Market quiet. Prints—Allens, 18@19; American, 20; Amoskeag, 19; Arnolds, 17; Cocheco, 21; Darnells, 19½; Empire 13½; Freeman, 17; Garner & Co., 21; Hamilton, 20; London mourning, 19½; Dunnell, 19; Lowell, 17½; Merrimack D, 21; do W, 22. Brown Sheetings—Amoskeag A, 25; do B, 24; Appleton A, 25; do C, 18; do D, 22; do E, 14; Augusta, 21½; do 16 ½; Broadway, 17; Laconia B, 22½; do E, 24½; shirtings [illegible]; sheetings [illegible]. Bleached—Bay Mills, 35; Blackstone, 27½; Cone, 18; do 25; Hallowell, 25¼; do 26½; Lonsdale, 29; Manville Co., 24; Masonville, 32½. Cambrics—Portland, 11½; Victory H, 11½; Washington, 15@16½.

Sale of Coffee and Sugars in Bond.

The following sales of coffee and sugars, in bond, were made this morning by Messrs. Jas. H. Laws & Co.:

5 bxs Havana sugar at 13¼c; 5 bxs do at 11c; 5 bxs do at 11½c; 10 bxs do at 13c; 5 bxs do at 12½c; 150 bxs do at 12¼c; 25 hhds do at 12½c; 6 hhds do at 12¾c, and 50 bgs coffee at 22½c. Also, 150 bbls crushed sugar at 17½c. The sugars were not duplicated, as the prices would not justify it. There was a good attendance, and a growing interest is manifested in these sales.—Cincinnati Inquirer.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 13, 1866. }

The produce markets continue very dull, and there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. The receipts of Grain continues large, and as the demand is very much restricted, holders are obliged to sell at a sacrifice, or put it in the elevator. Among others, Messrs. Hitchcock, McCreery & Co. received six cars oats, and six cars of Wheat, by the Panhandle Road, and another dealer received nine cars of Wheat. The elevator has been doing a regular "land-office" business for some time past, and may now be regarded as a complete success.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull, and concessions would have to be made in order to effect sales. We can report a sale of 2 cars No. 1 Chicago Oats at 45. Corn is dull and nominal at 75 to 80. Rye is in fair demand, and may be quoted at $1 for Western, and $1,05 for prime Penna. Barley dull. Buckwheat dull and drooping, the seeding season being over.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm and moderately active but unchanged at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19@20 for Ribbed Sides; and 25 to 25½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull at 22@22½ for steamed, and 23 for prime kettle rendered. Small sales of Dried Beef at 27½@28. Mess Pork is dull but held pretty firmly at $33,50 per barrel.

FLOUR—The demand seems to be falling off, and the market is weak, with a drooping tendency. Small sales from store at $10,50 to $11,25 for Spring Wheat; $12 to $13 for Winter Wheat, and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling in a small way at $6,50 to $6,75.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, though not quotably lower. We quote at $3 to $3.25 per bbl. Those who have been operating in Potatoes during the past two or three days have lost heavily.

BUTTER—Packed Butter is in moderate demand at 20 to 22. But little doing in Roll and but little offering, as the weather is entirely too hot to handle it.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged. Sales of fresh packed at 18 cts.

CHEESE—Is dull but unchanged at 15@16 for Western Reserve; 17@18 for Hamburg, and 20@21 for Goshen.

HAY—Is reported steady with sales at scales at $20 to 25 per ton—an occasional load of prime brings $26.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in good demand at $3, and a round lot might possibly bring a fraction more.

PIG LEAD—Is quoted firm at 12.
SORGHUM—Dull at 50@55.
BEANS—Prime White at $2.
HOMINY—Dull at 3¾@4.
OIL—Sales No. 1 Lard at $1,80@1,82.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 13, 1866 }

CRUDE—The market for Crude continues dull and depressed, the demand both for present and future delivery being very light, and dealers generally have come to the conclusion that it has not yet "touched bottom," and they would all like to know about when that event will take place. The business has been very unprofitable, and unsatisfactory all season, as prices have been steadily declining for two or three months past, and those who bought in anticipation of an advance, have been sadly disappointed, and those who invested early in the spring at 16 to 20c, on speculation, feel still worse. Barrelled oil may be quoted at 11 to 11½, packages returned, and 16 to 16½, packages included—sale of 300 bbls, in bulk, on the spot, at 12. For August and September delivery, there are a few buyers at 12½.

REFINED—The demand for bonded oil was very limited to-day, more so than during any preceding day this week, and the market was very dull and weak—not a single operation reported. Sales that were made yesterday could not be duplicated to-day, and refiners who were willing to sell to-day at yesterday's prices, could not obtain them. Philadelphia buyers offered 41 for October, 42 for November, and 43 for December, which is a decline of at least two cents per gallon within the past day or two. For July we quote nominally at 35@37; and 37½@38 for August. Free oil is dull and lower in sympathy with bonded.

RESIDUUM—There is some little inquiry for this article, and we can report small sales at $3 to $3,25 per bbl. Naptha is entirely neglected.

ARRIVALS—There were no arrivals by the Allegheny River to-day that we could hear of. Messrs. Warring & King received 55 bbls by rail from Smith's Ferry, and McCreight, Cushman & Co. received 46 bbls from the same point.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, July 13, 1866. }

The transactions in metal have been very much restricted this week, though the market is reported firm and former prices are fully sustained. For good brands of both mill and foundry iron, there is still some considerable inquiry, and the supply of this particular description is very much reduced. As is usual at this season of the year, it is very likely that some of our mills will soon suspend operations for a few weeks in order to make necessary repairs, and this, as a matter of course, will temporarily restrict the demand for metal, but as navigation in our rivers is about suspended, the receipts will be cut down, and there will doubtless be a sufficient demand to absorb the supplies on hand. What effect the deferring of the tariff bill will have it is of course too early at this day to speculate, but the impression prevails among those who ought to know that present prices will be maintained.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Cotton dull and unchanged, 35@36 for middling uplands. Flour dull heavy and 10c.@15c. lower on common and choice grades, white medium are in moderate demand, without decided change in price, $7 45@8 50 for extra State, extra Round Hoop Ohio, and $10 05@13 00 for Trade Brands, closing quiet. Whisky quiet, $2 20@$2 25 for Western. Wheat dull and heavy, except for prime Spring, which is scarce; $2 25@$2 31 for New No. 1 Milwaukee, and $3 00 for New Amber Jersey. Rye dull and drooping, sales 4,000 bush. Western at 98c. Barley and Barley Malt dull and nominal. Corn opened a shade firmer, and closed with free sellers at yesterday's prices, 85@88c. for unsound New Mixed Western; 88@87c. for sound do., and 92c. for Western Yellow. Receipts Oats, 62,615, market 1c. lower, at 50@55c. for Chicago; and 60c. for Milwaukee, good. Coffee; St. Domingo at 19½@20¼. Sugar steady and more active; Cuba at 10@11¼c.; Havanna at 11¼c. Petroleum dull and unsettled, at 22c. for Crude, and 37½ for Refined in bond. Pork opened firmer, and closed heavy, at $32 12½@32 37 for New Mess; closing at $32 12½ for least; $29 50 for old do., and $26 75@$27 00 for Prime. Beef without decided change at $16 00@d 50; for New Plain Mess, and $20 50@$24 50 for New Extra Mess. Beef Hams dull and nominal at 45c. Cut Meats firm, at 13½@15½c. for Shoulders, and 17½@20c. for Hams. Bacon dull and nominal, very little offering. Lard quiet, at 18¼@21c. Butter dull, at 20@33c. for Ohio, and 27@40c. for State. Cheese dull and scarcely so firm at 6@21c.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, July 13.—Flour and Wheat dull and prices unsettled. Corn dull and prices drooping; mixed, in elevator, 62@63c. Oats dull and prices declining; No. 1, 43@44c; No. 2, 38@39c. Rye dull, at 75c for No. 1. Whisky unchanged, at $2,27 in bond, and $2,25, duty paid. Mess Pork firmly held; the demand is confined to jobbing lots, at $32,35@32,75. Bulk Meats firm, at 15@17½ and 19½c for Shoulders, Sides and Clear Sides. Bacon firm, at 17@19½ and 21½c. with good consumptive demand. Lard dull, at 20@20½c.

The river has fallen two inches. Weather clear. Thermometer, 86°.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, July 13.—Flour quiet. Wheat heavy and drooping; No 1 Milwaukee about $2,10. Corn closed in the afternoon with sales 34,000 bush No 1—to arrive—at 72@73½c on spot. Oats quiet; No 1 Chicago held at 44c, No 2 do, 43c; No 1 Milwaukee, 48c. Barley nominal. Pork, $32,50@33,00. Lard, 21c. Whisky nominal.

Oswego Market.

OSWEGO, July 13.—Flour steady and unchanged, at $10,75 for No. 1 spring; $12,25@12,50 for red winter; $15,25 for double extra. Wheat dull and lower; No. 1 Milwaukee club $2,14; No. 1 Chicago spring $1,99. Corn quiet; No. 1 Illinois held at 77c. Oats held at 55c for prime Milwaukee.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, July 13.—Cotton; sales 1400 bales low middlings at 32, and middlings at 35. The week's receipts amount to 2500 bales, against 3277 bales last week. The exports foot up 4476 bales. Sterling, 67. New York Exchange ¼ premium.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Flour dull. Wheat dull, at $1,63@1,64 for No. 1, and $1,05 for No. 2. Corn quiet and declined ¼@½c; sales of No. 1 at 56@57½c. Oats dull and declined ½c; sales at 31@32c for No. 1, and 29½c for No. 2. Mess Pork, $31,50@31,75.

Toledo Market.

TOLEDO, July 13.—Flour dull. Wheat dull, at 5c lower; no transactions of importance. Corn steady, at 66@67c for No. 1 Mixed, and 88c for No. 1 White. Oats quiet, at 36½@37c for No. 1. Freights dull, at 4½c for grain by steam to Buffalo.

Baltimore Market.

RIVER NEWS.

The river has varied but little during the twenty-four hours ending last evening, the pier marks indicating about thirty inches. The weather continues clear and oppressively hot in the sun.

The Kate Putnam, which boat has been laid up for some time past waiting for water, succeeded in reaching the wharf on Friday night. Her last trip was by no means a pleasant one, and we have no doubt she will now go into summer quarters. The Leni Leoti, due here from Parkersburg, on Thursday night, had not arrived up to last evening, having been detained, no doubt, by some other boat or boats sticking in the channel. The New State, which boat was expected to arrive night before last, and leave for Wheeling at noon yesterday, had not made her appearance up to last evening.

—Since writing the above the New State, from Wheeling, the Leni Leoti, from Parkersburgh, and the Arabian, from Cincinnati have arrived. The cargo manifest of the Arabian will be found elsewhere.

The Fayette, Capt. Cox, and the Chieftan, Capt. Abrams, both first class passenger steamers are the regular packets for Brownsville and Geneva, leaving this evening at 5 o'clock.

We clip the following from the Chronicle, of yesterday:

Some days since a suit in admiralty was instituted in the United States District Court, against the steamer "Spray," by T. T. Packarel, and others, crew of said boat, for wages due them. This morning the owners of the steamboat Argosy, Messrs. Cunningham & Barrett, John Book, and A. Hartupee, et. al., presented petitions in the court setting forth that they also had claims against the "Spray," and asking permission to intervene and prosecute their action with T. A. Packarel and others. Judge McCandless directed that the petitions be filed, and ordered that the petitioners be allowed privilege asked for, and that monitions issue against the owners of said boat.

ENGINEER'S CONVENTION—SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.—The convention met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, pursuant to adjournment the President in the chair.

A considerable portion of the day was spent in considering and adopting rules and laws for their future government. Among the matters of interest was the adoption of a law requiring the different local associations to appoint a board of examiners whose duty it will be to carefully examine the qualifications and character of applicants who desire advancement in the responsible duties of their profession, thus, in a measure, guarding the public against the promotion of incompetent and unworthy persons.

Committees were appointed whose duty it will be to repair to the scene of disaster when an accident occurs by which life and property are destroyed, originating in the engineer's department, and carefully investigate the cause and report upon the same.

It was also resolved that no political or religious opinion should work to the prejudice of any member of this association or be discussed in any of the subordinate associations.

The convention adjourned until 8 o'clock this morning.—Louisville Democrat, 11th.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of Thursday, says:

The Camelia arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday and discharged 20 tons iron, and reshipped 17 tons freight on the Armadillo for New Orleans. The Camelia has considerable freight for St. Louis, for which place she will complete her trip here.

Constantine Miller, the veteran river reporter, accompanied by Capt. Frank Batchelor and their respective families, leave on a tour to Lake Superior the first of next week.

SAVE THYSELF.

A Cure for Intemperance.

DR. S. CUTTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS,

The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine Discovery of the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to his discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was used before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impurities of the blood. As a nervine it is always the choice of the Stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, opium, morphia, arsenic, tobacco, &c., as it removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulant; in Headache, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.

Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, has established its reputation as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is prescribed now by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants. In Paralysis, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Nervous Twitchings, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and retail Agent, MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE TO THE Tax Payers OF THE Borough of Lawrenceville,

Whereas, by a Supplement of the Act of Assembly approved the 8th day of March, A. D., 1864, relating to the payment of the Borough Tax to the Treasurer within the limits of said Borough, the undersigned respectfully notifies the said tax payers that he is now in possession of the Duplicate for the payment of said tax, and ready to receive the same.

On all taxes paid on or before the first day of August, 1866, an allowance of five per cent. will be made.

On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of August, and prior to the first day of September, must be paid in full.

On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of September, he shall add five per centum.

And on the first day of October in each year, the Treasurer shall make out a list of delinquent tax payers, with the amount due from each, with ten per centum additional added; provided that no additional amount shall be less than ten cents, and place the same in the hands of the High Constable, whose duty it shall be to receive the same under a penalty of fifty dollars; and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue to said constable his warrant to collect such tax, granting him all the powers and immunities now by law vested in collectors of county rates and levies. Provided that no further additional notice to tax payers shall be required than the advertisement in one or more papers and by handbills.

[illegible]

The said Treasurer respectfully informs the tax payers of said borough that he is Collector and Treasurer for the Lawrenceville School District, and is also prepared to receive their taxes, and invites them to call at his office in the Borough of Lawrenceville, at the corner of Butler and Dravo streets.

ROBACK'S BITTERS

ARE BETTER.

Roback's Stomach Bitters

After years of experience and trial, have proven to be the best remedy extant for all complaints where a tonic and stimulant are required. They never fail to strengthen the weak, impart vigor to the system and in all respects restore shattered and broken down constitutions. No remedy has been received with as much favor as ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is admitted by our most learned physicians that DR. ROBACK'S BITTERS combine the properties of a gentle laxative, an effectual anti-bilious agent, and the best stomachic known to the world.

ROBACK'S

BITTERS should be used by convalescents to strengthen the prostration which always follows acute diseases.

In the bilious districts of the West and South there has been, for a long time, been much needed, an article of stomach bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of

Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all Diseases of a similar nature, and a preventive for bilious derangement, regulating the system, and giving tone to the digestive organs, than any other known remedy.

Now that the war is over, there will be thousands seeking homes in the South. No person who values his life should go there without having constantly at hand the BITTERS, as a safeguard against epidemical maladies engendered by miasma and polluted water.

Travelers to and all residents of the rank bottoms of the west and south, and the valley of the Mississippi and its tributaries, should provide themselves with the

All Diseases of the Lungs

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, JANUARY 11, 1865.

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with it by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she has been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much. I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so. Yours, [illegible]

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,

PITTSBURGH, December 31.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think I should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE,

Witness—E. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1848.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives laid me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit, his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost every body around us has the cold, and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. F. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us that they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,

J. S. WATTERSON & SONS

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. A medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At the same time I would say that it possesses the principal qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At the throat would account so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found. I earnestly urge to give it a trial; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,

EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken. J. W. PRICE.

"COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP."—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that I think it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and thus far my case is entirely cured with. If I have not used more than one-half of a bottle, and I can and do as it can help. Every person would give it as a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine, no one would suffer another such an attack for any inducement, or at any cost. I am confident I can recommend it freely than I ever did. I shall always keep it in my house, for its excellence as a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in any [illegible] you think proper.

[illegible] PRATT.

N. B. I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me at any time. L. P. T.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks so bad I was very much alarmed. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, which relieved me but did not cure. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Dr. Keyser's, at No. 140 Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the advice given by one of our citizens in regard to the efficacy of Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup, and on this advice sufficiently concur in the advisor's admonitions, because we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Now that the season is over we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, torturing, unfathomable and unendurable coughs that ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed constantly and incessantly for one whole week. In hopes of finding it bettered by practice, and to have acquired strength, patience and patience enough to submit to its progress at this stage of the war, we coughed our way to Keyser's No. 140 Wood st. cor., procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours was entirely rid of the cough, and having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—*Brownsville City per.
